When School's Out, We're In!

Little Scholars has proudly partnered with The University of Richmond for the past 16 summers and we are excited for another great year!

Little Scholars delivers top-tier enrichment programs to school districts and independent schools throughout the US. We tailor our program to individual needs and interests because every child and school community is unique. We pride ourselves in providing world-class customer service by anticipating our customers' needs.

Camps are free for full-time employees, but registration for each child is required.

Employees must use their own name and University email address for registration. Spouse name and/or personal email accounts cannot be processed.

Employee's eligible dependents must be verified and listed in Workday by Monday, February 9th in order to enroll in camps. Enrollment will not be processed without the required documentation.

Employees/dependents do not need to be enrolled in a university medical plan to participate.

Enrollment in these programs does not use tuition remission credits.

If you registered last year, you can use your same account. New families will need to create an account at the time of registration. (takes 5 minutes, tops!)

In order to expedite your registration:

- Employee's eligible dependents must be verified and listed in Workday by the end of registration on Monday, February 9th to avoid removal from the camp. Enrollment will not be processed without the required documentation. If dependent has already been verified you can skip this step.
- If you are registering for the first time, you can set up your Sawyer account here (<https://www.hisawyer.com>). If you are a returning user, please ensure that you have your login credentials available.
- Acceptance is immediate until classes are full. Once a class is full, your dependent will be placed on a waitlist for that week and you will be notified if space opens up.
- Little Scholars manages camp registration. Any questions regarding waitlist status or camp registration should be directed to Nicole Brown at Little Scholars or 804-447-4095.
